You'd never guess that Elijah Wood has boatloads of money from all those Lord of the Rings movies. He pulls up to this interview in an old Mini Cooper that belongs to his mother. He's wearing jeans and a Gogol Bordello T-shirt—because he's friends with the band's lead singer, Eugene Hutz, who's starring with him in the upcoming movie Everything Is Illuminated. And even though 24-year-old Elijah just bought a house and adjacent guest house in Venice, Calif., each one is a tiny 900 square feet because, he says, "There's something disciplinary about it." Apparently Hollywood hasn't quite corrupted everyone. If you ask me, Elijah's a real keeper.
