

"I'm very much a people pleaser generally in life, and that's a wonderful thing in many respects. It can also be very, very harmful in this industry."

EMMA CORRIN

Emma Corrin, star of Lady Chatterley's Lover, and their fellow THR Actress Roundtable participants were photographed Nov. 19 at PMC Studios in Los Angeles.

FEATURES

52 The THR Actress Roundtable: 'There's So Much Change at This Table'

Michelle Yeoh, Jennifer Lawrence, Michelle Williams, Danielle Deadwyler, Claire Foy and Emma Corrin discuss ways to portray trauma without fetishizing it, how women directors can differ from men and the power of saying no.

60 The Mega Maverick

Jerry Bruckheimer, THR's Producer of the Year, has crushed the box office with more original franchises than some studios, from Top Gun to Pirates of the Caribbean: "I've never, ever done it for the money."

64 Hollywood's 2022 Yearbook

It has been said that Hollywood is like high school with money, but given the past 12 months, maybe that's a little unfair to high school. The Hollywood Reporter recounts the varsity champs who made the biggest plays, the class clowns stuck in detention and the feuds and scandals that had the lunchroom buzzing.

74 How Alan Menken Transformed Movie Music

With more than 50 years in the business and Disney blockbusters like The Little Mermaid, Beauty and the Beast and Pocahontas, the composer has "written the musical DNA of a generation."

76 The Golden Globes Embrace Laughter

The awards show attempts a return after two years of scandal, with comedy features leading the film nominations.

Photographed here and for the cover by Danielle Levitt